Canada In Scotland

This is the first picture received here of Canada's pavilion at the Glasgow Empire Exhibition, which for some months past year. The floor area of the pavilion will be 24,000 square feet, and the tower will be 100 feet high. Most of the wood used in the structure is Canadian, notably yellow birch and Douglas fir. Eighty per cent of the area will be taken up by individual firms, who will represent every industry in the Dominion. The building itself is being made of all Canadian materials, except the steel in the tower, which is British.

SIR G. PERLEY, VETERAN TORY MEMBER, DIES

Sudden Collapse Shocks Ottawa—Active Up To The Last

OTTAWA, Jan. 4.—Hon. Sir George Perley, veteran member of parliament for Argenteuil and chief lieutenant of Conservative leader R. B. Bennett, died in his sleep at his home here early today. He was 69 years old.

Mr. Perley had been his usual vigorous health, attending the governor-general's levee and making a round of calls New Year's day. Just a week ago today Sir George and Lady Perley gave a large dance for a debutante granddaughter.

Active in Canada's political life for more than 40 years, Sir George had been a member of the cabinet since 1911, and had been a member of the Imperial war cabinet.

Mr. Perley gave no indication of ill-health before retiring last night.

Active participation in the holiday festivities had left him in the small club room in the basement of the Masonic Temple on Tuesday at 4 p.m. to enable young Liberals to meet Mr. E. L. Grey, provincial Liberal leader, who has been invited to address the meeting and meet the Young Liberals informally.

A joint meeting of the Twentieth Century club and Young Men's Liberal club will be held in the small club room in the basement of the Masonic Temple on Tuesday at 4 p.m. to enable young Liberals to meet Mr. E. L. Grey, provincial Liberal leader, who has been invited to address the meeting and meet the Young Liberals informally.

League of Nations raises Sea For Peace

League of Nations Expresses Warm Approval of President Roosevelt's Address To United States Congress

British Sources Say Europe Generally Welcomes "Cold Condemnation" of Policies Of Dictatorial Countries

LONDON, Jan. 4.—Europe's democracies and the League of Nations last night expressed warm approval of President Roosevelt's message to the United States congress, especially his assurance the world's peace was "most safe in the hands of democratic representative governments."

In Great Britain and France nationwide applause greeted his statement of the United States people's belief that Democracy would "be restored or established in those nations which today know it not," and his declaration that "in that faith lies the future peace of mankind."

Some indifference to the British government declared Europe generally welcomed what they called a "cold condemnation" of the policies of dictatorial countries.

At the British foreign office the message was applauded as evidence of the identity of United States and British foreign policy.

DEEP WATERWAY PLAN REJECTED BY COMMISSION

OTTAWA, Jan. 4.—The international joint commission today confirmed a recent report that under the terms of the 1926 agreement regarding the proposed construction of a deep waterway connecting the St. Lawrence river with Lake Ontario by way of Lake Michigan. The commission has filed its report with the governments of United States and Canada.

ARMED with only a meagre description of the ill-considered plan, the committee, headed by Sir George Perley, chief of the police, detailed a special squad of officers to investigate the crash. All constables were armed to look out for the car and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in looking for the auto in country districts.

Two blocks from the scene of the accident the same auto is believed to have crashed into a car belonging to a member of the Imperial war cabinet.

Mr. Perley gave no indication of ill-health before retiring last night.

Farmer Of South Zone Broom Starts Big Fight: Then Murder

Nick Boychuk Sent Up For Murder Trial In Farm Tragedy

Striking a cat with a broom precipitated a fight which resulted in the death of Nick Pohorichuk, farm reliever and in Nick Boychuk, 29-year-old bachelor farmer of Kalmank, north of Vegreville, being committed to stand trial for his murder. It was charged at Vegreville on Monday when a coroner's jury investigated the death of the farmer.

After the coroner's jury had brought in a verdict that deceased Pohorichuk had come to his death at the hands of a person known as "a man," the jury returned a verdict of guilty on the charge of murder.

He will appear at the next sitting of the supreme court in the Vegreville judicial district.

The alleged murder took place on Tuesday, Dec. 28.

DRAMATIC FIGHT

Boychuk, given by Boychuk, a Kalmank farmer, 60 miles east of Vegreville, and he told of the dramatic fight that ended in the death of his opponent and resulting in his own death.

Boychuk contended that in the first instance, trouble arose between him and his hired man, on account of the communicative tendencies of the latter.

Differences in this respect, no violence flared up until Pohorichuk struck the favorite Boychuk pet, a cat, with a broom.

This, apparently, proved the ignition to a feud and a fight started.

Evidences of the resulting battle were viewed by R.C.M.P. officers in the blood stains.

SKIER'S BODY THOUGHT HELD BENEATH ROCK

NEW AVALANCHE THREAT Causes Deferment Search For John Bulyea

RANF, Alta., Jan. 4.—Buried beneath the snow, the body of John Bulyea, Edmonton skier, is thought to be held beneath a rock.

This was the belief of Edward S. Leonard, of the state police, who had been in the district for 20 years, taking up a hasty search for the body of the skier.

John Bulyea, 35, of Edmonton, was a member of the local ski club and was a well-known skier.

He was last seen on Monday, Jan. 3, when he was seen to be skiing down a hill.

His disappearance gave rise to suspicion of his kidnapping.

REDFERN SEARCH PARTY MAROONED AND SUPPLIES LOW

GEORGETOWN, British Columbia, Jan. 4.—The Waldeck expedition searching for Red Fern, American aviator missing 19 years, was marooned today on a rock in the Upper Canyon river, about 180 miles from here.

The expedition reported its supplies were low and that the aviator was still missing.

Red Fern was last seen in 1919, when he was seen to be flying over the canyon.

Foreign War Materials Move Into China Interior

Soviet Purge Takes 1,300 Lives In Sweeping Unheaval Of 1937; Moscow-Tokyo Tension Grows

Russia Still Honors Him

Only Few High Executives Keep Posts—Eight Generals Executed for Treason—Army and Navy Get New Chiefs

BY NORMAN B. DEUEL

MOSCOW, Jan. 4.—The Soviet Union closed the year 1937 in the mopping up stage of an internal upheaval which caused an almost complete turnover in government and economic leadership with the exception of Josef Stalin and a handful of his highest executives, and many of the latter were not exempt.

A new Supreme Soviet was elected December 12 under the new Constitution adopted a year ago, but the actual turnover in leadership came as the result of a purge during which there were approximately 1,300 executions, thousands of arrests and an incalculable number of civilians sent to the camps.

Three of the five presidents of the Central Executive Committee were disgraced and probably arrested, seven of the 15 commissars of the D.S.S.R. through transfer or discharge changed leadership, the army and navy commands were shaken up with eight generals in the former service executed for treason.

NINE COMMISSARS OUSTED
In the Russian Socialist Federated Soviet Republic, comprising most of the area and population of the country, all nine commissars were removed. Also were the presidents of White Russia, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia, Turkmenistan, Tadzhikistan and Kirgizia were removed.

The premiers of the Ukraine, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan, Tadzhikistan and Kirgizia were removed. The presidents of every one of the nine autonomous republics included in the R.S.F.S.R. were removed with the exception of one (Mordovia).

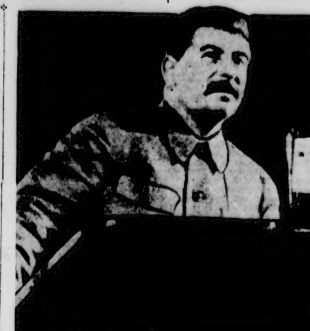

In most cases the removals resulted in arrests on charges of treason, nationalism, wrecking the return of capitalism with the aid of foreign powers. Leadership in the governments of the provinces changed just as completely.

Innumerable arrests of Communist party secretaries and leaders were recorded, the first time that a purge has been extended so deeply into the ranks of the party itself.

WIDESPREAD FLOOD REVEALED
Karl Radek, former "mouthpiece of Stalin," in a journalistic sense, warned in his "last words" at the trial that Trotskyists were found in every government and party organization, large or small.

Foreign observers differed as to the authenticity of the evidence and confessions, but it was accepted at face value by a reorganizing committee, which in turn stern preventive and retaliatory measures followed to such an extent that the entire face of the subsidiary leadership changed.

PRODUCTION GOES INTO SLUMP
Similar changes took place in industry, trade, banking and other fields.

JOSEPH STALIN

Although the election was said to be in the well-known hand, Josef V. Stalin, dictator of Soviet Russia, went through the motions of making a campaign speech any day. He is shown as he addressed the voters of the Stalin election district in Moscow on the eve of the election in which Russians voted for the first time under the new constitution.

AGUA CALIENTE PADLOCK LAW IS ATTACKED BY DISALLOWANCE EX-EMPLOYEES AIM OF U. F. A.

AGUA CALIENTE, Mex. Jan. 4.—Demanding the right to work, 400 former employees and their families took possession of luxury homes in the town of Agua Caliente, and locked the gates behind them, and refused to admit officials of the Agua Caliente company and the Mexican police.

The union, which they were holding the property in a lack of payment of wages for three months, said they were due them, and in protest against governmental seizure of the resort for school purposes.

Octogenarian Dies
VICTORIA, Jan. 4.—John Fowler, formerly of Oak Bluff, Mass., died at his home here Monday.

Mr. Fowler, who was 82 years of age, was a native of Massachusetts and had lived in Victoria for many years. He was a member of the Victoria branch of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

POLITICAL UNITY ACHIEVED
Political unity under the Communist party has been achieved, according to the Soviet press, as the result of the purge. The party has reached second place in the election, with a bumper crop of new members, and with the virtual elimination of the nation's political and cultural life.

In the latter field the Soviet government has been successful in the purge of the party.

On the whole, it is probable that the author never saw either Gravelle or Hastings Streets. The city of it that by calling on Mr. Madman at B.C. House he could have got the thing, and then, after troubling to go to Vancouver.

The author, moreover, had the local news Nothing Hill or Nottingham. One suspects that the author never more than 50 miles from either.

As the law of England stands the emigrants may be hands out on any man and compel him to be sworn in as a special constable—just as a man may be called on to appear in court to answer him in the execution of his duty, failure to do so being at his peril.

As a rule it is deemed rather an honor to be called on to act as a special constable, but it is a disgrace at Hartlepool which discloses that, honor or no honor, there is no option about it, the citizen is called on to do so, except that of a fine.

It seems that a bus driver, the secretary of the local union, was called upon to appear before the magistrate and be sworn in. He appeared but objected to becoming a special constable, whereupon he was told that he could either submit to the magistrate or pay a fine of $25.

The bus driver submitted and then raised the question with a parliamentary member of the Labour party. He objected to the principle of compulsion. The issue got into the House of Commons, rather, one imagines, to the embarrassment of the Socialist section of the Labour party, and advice to the state is a Socialist principle. It would be different were it compulsory military service, but one would think that the duty of aiding in the keeping of the peace devices upon all good citizens alike.

Mr. Greenwood, deputy leader of the parliamentary Labour party, did, however, ask whether the House Secretary should not be required to "publish" this "absolute piece of legislation," but Mr. Samuel Hoare was not to be drawn.

TRUCKS MOVE BIG SUPPLIES INTO CANTON

British, Italian, German and United States Equipment Used

HONG KONG, Jan. 4.—Completion of a bridge linking the British and Chinese sides of the Hong Kong-Canton motor road has opened the way for a considerable movement of foreign-made war materials to General Chiang Kai-shek's forces in the interior of China.

Since the bridge was finished New Year's day long lines of trucks have moved out toward Canton carrying tanks, machine guns, United States and Italian make. They could not be shipped by rail because single track tunnels en route to Canton are too narrow.

Likewise to Canton from England, United States and German make, and Chinese-made tanks, guns, and other equipment are being sent.

AERIAL BOMBERS
Besides smaller shipments of explosives arriving from Europe, it was disclosed Monday the liner Conte Verde last week brought 1,400 tons of aerial bombs from Italy which were transported by rail to Canton.

One hundred thousand barrels of oil from the United States coast of the United States went by rail to Canton in the last few days and were shipped by truck to Canton.

Local agents of the Freighter Han Hsin Hsin, the Han Da, 2,360 tons, formerly Chinese, recently was chartered by the British.

HONG KONG NOT BASE
Although allowing trans-shipment of war materials to the Chinese government, British officials are active in Hong Kong have forbidden any active role in the military preparation. Even the armaments have been stationed in positions to maintain a constant watch along the southern coast, were said to have established that only Japanese naval parties had landed to conduct scouting and foraging expeditions.

Hong Kong authorities said they had found no evidence to support Chinese fears of an early Japanese drive on Canton.

Frequent reports of Japanese landing parties on the coast and islands in Chinese territorial waters have been stationed in positions to maintain a constant watch along the southern coast, were said to have established that only Japanese naval parties had landed to conduct scouting and foraging expeditions.

HEAVY BATTLE SURGES ABOUT SPANISH CITY

Battlefields Littered With Thousands of Dead in Combat

HENRIQUE, Jan. 4.—Heavy fighting was going on in the town of Henríquez, a native of Tanganyika territory in Africa, who recently acquired by the war, gave birth to five cubs and Director George P. Verheer immediately designated them "Africa," while marking at the municipal office. It was unusual for a mother lion to give birth to more than three cubs in one litter, he pointed out, and while there are occasionally four, a quintet is almost unheard of. Three males and two female make up the litter.

HEAVY BATTLE SURGES ABOUT SPANISH CITY

Battlefields Littered With Thousands of Dead in Combat

HENRIQUE, Jan. 4.—Heavy fighting was going on in the town of Henríquez, a native of Tanganyika territory in Africa, who recently acquired by the war, gave birth to five cubs and Director George P. Verheer immediately designated them "Africa," while marking at the municipal office. It was unusual for a mother lion to give birth to more than three cubs in one litter, he pointed out, and while there are occasionally four, a quintet is almost unheard of. Three males and two female make up the litter.

Campus Hums With Renewed Activity

Trains pulling swiftly into stations, buses grinding to a stop at depots . . . a steady buzz of conversation ensues as carefree young men and young girls climb down, laughing, recounting Christmas experiences, still thrilled with the many parties and dances while

On Monday and Tuesday, campus which had lain deserted for two weeks past, once more took on the appearance of a hive of industry as students rushed to 8:30 lectures, hiked over to Tufts to exchange a friendly half-to while away a friendly hour over coffee, or loitered in the Art rotunda, greeting pals who had gone their different ways at Christmas time.

BACK TO CAMPUS LIFE

It's back to campus life for over 2000 students, a large majority of whom make their home in other parts of this and other provinces and who during the past day or two have crowded trains and buses

On their return to college. Among those who have returned are Mr. Helen Rose and Miss Catherine Rose of Hillcrest, Miss Joan Whitt of Vermilion, Miss Margaret Hale of Camrose, Miss Helen Storr of Vanderhoof, British Columbia. From Regina, Saskatchewan, Mr. Crosby Johnston and Mr. Leonard McGurrin have returned, while Mr. Al Hynes has returned from Saskatoon. Mr. Douglas Brimacombe has returned from spending the Christmas season with his parents in Vermilion and Mr. George Walker has returned from his home in Lethbridge.

Calgary always claims a large number ofVarsity students for the Christmas vacation, but following New Year's they all return large numbers to Edmonton and the university. Among those returning from the southern city are the Misses Eileen Lannon, Mary Sullivan, Stella Joffe, Grace Eggleston, Nancy Smith, Mary Hindsley, Jessie Skene, Dorothy Hutton.

FROM THE SOUTH
Messrs Paddy Morris, William McLaws, Donald McLaws, Lloyd Hutton, Gordon Buchanan, Donald Matthews, James Corbett, Ben Swann, Jack Alkenhead, William Stark, Guy Morton, James Francis and others.

Looking them Over

By Jack Kelly
Desert Threat
Squandered Water
Trees Essential

STRICTLY speaking, drought—in the agricultural sense, does not fall within the boundaries of this column. Drought, however, is perhaps the major enemy of game birds and animals and that puts it offically in our alley. There are indications that the next couple of months are likely to bring legislative measures aimed at checking this measure that threatens to create a great American desert up and down the plains region during the course of the continent. And all available data is needed.

For the guidance of sportsmen and nature lovers a number of pertinent facts on the drought problem have just been published by the National Association of Audubon Societies, 1775 Broadway, New York, in the form of a booklet by William Vogt. It deals with terrific toll of drought on birds and animals in the United States and the general principles laid down apply equally to western Canada.

The following quotations pretty well sum up the situation. There seems every reason to believe that drought is largely the result of man's silly care to drain every swamp, lake and pond and cut down every tree in a mad rush to put every available foot of land into the production of crops for which there is no market.

Inland Water Reserves Squandered

WITHIN our generation we have drained 17,000,000 acres of water from the North Central States and the prairie regions of America where the drought is now most severe. Certain it is that by ditching and digging we have continued to convert 17,000,000 acres of what was marsh and lakeland into fields on which midwestern farmers have sought to raise more grain to contribute to an already over-saturated market. Millions have been poured into elaborate ditches that rob this area of the source of summer moisture and end it rushing eastward in the form of devastating floods.

The total acreage drained in the United States alone is now 84,000,000 acres—more than the combined total area of England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland and the British Isles. In Canada, it is estimated that more than another 10,000,000 acres have been drained in 13 states that have no organized drainage enterprises.

J. N. Darling, former chief of the U.S. Biological Survey, warns: "This taking of the water off the surface of the land with such artificial haste has robbed us of the benefits of the great subterranean water-table that should serve as a storehouse in the cycles of excessive drought. The natural precipitation no longer remains long enough on the surface to seep down and replenish this subterranean storehouse. The result is that ground water-table has been lowered during the last 30 years by a total of 50 feet in many regions of the prairie states. This means that if you dig a well you will have to go 50 feet deeper for water than you did in 1900."

Trees Are Important Factor

AT ONE time on the western plains, water could be found at from 13 to 20 feet down. Tree roots could reach this supply. The roots sucked it up, the leaves gave it off into the atmosphere and local rains precipitated it again on the ground. One single tree will contribute from one to four tons of water a day to the atmosphere, depending on the type of tree. Breaking up of earth by tree roots and the loss of water by transpiring moisture. One pound of marsh moss will hold eight pounds of water. Once this moss has been destroyed, it will take years to regain it.

Fresh water swamps and marshes are the richest stores of animal life that exist anywhere and provide the food supply and refuge that is absolutely essential to maintain life and animal life.

The real loss for drainage has ravaged the face of the North American continent like some form of terrestrial typhoid. Wild life and vegetation have been killed, and the earth has dried up only to erode and blow away in dust blizzards that are disastrous to man and beast alike.

JOHNNY LONGDEN BACK ON TOP

CORAL GABLES, Fla., Jan. 4.—Alberta's Johnny Longden started his new racing year on the right side Monday by winning on Mrs. Smith's American Oriental in the feature Vero Beach race at Tropical Park.

The gelding, gelded through 34, finished off a sloppy going under the guidance of Longden, leading jockey of the meeting, to finish a neck ahead of A. J. Sackett's Tobin in 1:40. The Woodford Farm-Buffed Clouds was third.

Longden, winning his 11th race of the season, was the four-year-old gelding he early on moved up from the turn and rode him hard to win. Oriental returned $100 to $5.

Frank Page Takes Grand Challenge In Chipman's Bonspiel

RESERVE to Edmonton hockey CHAMPION, Jan. 4.—The skipper by Frank Page took home honors at the 1955 Chipman Bonspiel of the Chipman Curling Club, which they defeated 21-10 in the final of the Grand Challenge event. The second event was won by Paul Wong, who defeated Val Jankowski, while the consolation game was won by Bill Wetherill with a win over Hockley.

Following is the lineup of the winning clubs with key players and lead being in that order: Page, M. Hines, J. Berke and V. Jankowski; Wong, Krul, Foster and J. Krul; Wetherill, M. O'Brien, H. Grant and J. Jankowski.

Vancouver Six Gets Claws Trimmed 2-0

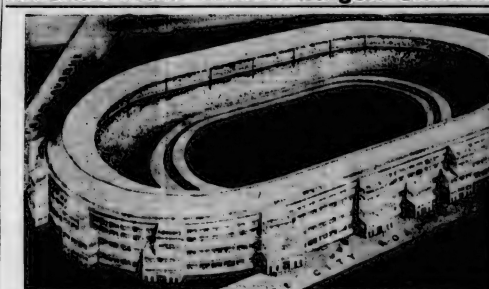

VANCOUVER, Jan. 4.—Sixties Shawska came through with the last-period goal to defeat the league-leading Vancouver Lions 2-0 and strengthen their second-place position in the standings of the Pacific Coast Hockey League.

After two scoreless periods, goals by Sammy McLean and Larry Shawska came within a minute of each other in the final minute to break the deadlock.

Albertan Plans World's Largest Stadium

Canadian-born Brigadier-General A. C. Critchley, formerly of Calgary, Alta., has become the czar of sports in England. Here is an architect's drawing of the White City stadium in London, England, as it will look when enlarged to accommodate 180,000 spectators. Critchley will spend $1,250,000 on the enterprise and will also be assisted by the government in his latest venture. They will establish a new underground (subway) route to serve the stadium, providing service for 1,000 passengers per minute. The outstanding English sports promoter is pictured on the right. Incidentally, it will be the world's greatest sports stadium.

Calgary's Critchley Stages Battle Of Millions To Gain Control Of Sport Promotion In England

LONDON, Jan. 4.—No keener struggle was ever waged on an English sports field than the present costly battle on the sidelines for supremacy in the sports promotion sphere between A. J. Elvin of Wembley and Brig.-Gen. A. C. Critchley of White City, native of Calgary.

Both sportsmen are said to be a complete sports plant capable of staging the 1960 Olympic Games or, if Japan should back down, the 1960 games.

Immediate objectives are stands capable of accommodating the nation-making cup final and international football crowds. The football association will announce early in 1958 the venue of these profitable contests for the eight years after 1964 when overcrowded Wembley's seats are full.

General Critchley made the first move by announcing an enlargement scheme for White City which would provide accommodation for 180,000 persons. Elvin's plan, which he announced he intended to go through 1960, better. His stadium would be the largest in the world. Elvin holds the cards because he has the present football association license. But he wants the football association to take a share in financing the project whereas the Canadian plans to supply his own cash.

Each promoter has the other step by step until London is probably the only city in the world that has two compact sports units of this colossal size.

Grand Prairie Six Need Extra Session Conquer Veterans

GRAND PRAIRIE, Jan. 4.—It took the Grand Prairie Braves 16 minutes of overtime play to conquer the Veterans of the Empire pool for swimming, boxing and hockey accommodation, and the Palace of Arts for tennis, squash, racquet and badminton. The White City has already been set up with the addition of exhibition space for the Grand Prairie arena last Tuesday.

The youngsters scored twice in the first period and made the score with only seconds remaining in the middle session. The third period was record. The game was fast and rugged with the referees leading out an even ten penalties in the second period.

DOMINION SIX OPPOSES SOOPS ON THURSDAY

EDMONTON hockey fans, who are beginning to realize that they have a real title contender in the Bruins, will get another chance to see their favorites in action Thursday night, when they trade in another of those bitterly fought intra-city battles with Superior at the Arena.

Williams Brilliant Under Heavy Fire; Rangers Win Again

Coal City Club Definitely Outplays Stuart Clan In Big Six Hockey Fixture—Show Major Improvement

Drumheller, Jan. 4.—Irish Stuart's Superiors took a 5-2 trimming from the Drumheller Miners before a large crowd of fans, who saw Eddie Williams turn in a sparkling performance in the Edmonton net last night at the Drumheller Arena.

Miners looked like a new squad from the team that received a 6-3 drubbing from Calgary Bronks last Saturday as they gave Goals Bud Wolfe all kinds of protection and staged power plays that kept the Edmonton netter bottled up in their own end of the rink for a major portion of the game. Most of the Miner tallies came while the Soops were short-handed, but the Stuart clan couldn't capitalize on their own chances.

Only real scoring opportunity came in the second period, when Bill Wright and Larry Anderson of the Miners were forced to take up residence in the penalty boxes, but the Edmonton club were unable to force the puck past Wolfe.

Of the 12 minutes of play, Soops Bentley opened the scoring with a long shot from centre, when Williams' vision was blocked and another member of the team, Broder Mac Bentley, made it a family affair as he took Kennedy's shot to give the Miners a 1-0 lead. The game went on to a 3-2 Superior tally, a powerful attack in the closing moments of the game but were met by an impregnable defense.

Maroons Are After Smith Of Americans But Deal No Dice

Gorman Asks Calder But Dutton Spikes Idea On Losing Smith

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Montreal Maroons are seeking the services of hockey Smith, centre star, who was announced last night by Red Dutton, manager of New York Americans of the National Hockey League.

Dutton said that on his trip to Montreal last week-end he was advised by Frank Calder, N.H.L. president and director of the American club officials, had approached him regarding Smith.

"They asked Mr. Calder if I was satisfied with the hockey Smith was playing and when he passed the question on to me, I assured him that I was," said Dutton, who signed Smith this season after he was turned loose by Boston Bruins as a hold-out.

"During the last few games with the Bruins he played his best hockey of the last six or seven seasons. I would not part with him for any amount of money if he was younger," Dutton said.

DEAL POSSIBLE

"But Hockey has his home and a business in Montreal and this plus the fact that I am sure he will be the Americans for the future, might make it difficult to consider a deal for him with the Bruins."

As for a straight swap, though, that's out. There isn't a player on that team I'd take on an even trade for Smith," Dutton said.

Dutton clarified a previous statement attributed to him that he might consider King Clancy, recently resigned coach of the Maroons, in a deal for Smith, by stating the former Toronto Maple Leaf defence star, already was American's property.

OBTAINS CLANCY

"I obtained Clancy from the Leafs this spring at the same time as negotiations were made for Happy Day," said Dutton. "It is only now that Smith was allowed to leave the Leafs this season."

Gorman conducted Montreal Maroons had made attempts to bring back Smith, but insisted the club had abandoned efforts to get Hockey from Americans.

LUCKLESS OLDS SEXTET LOSES TO RED DEER

RED DEER, Jan. 4.—Red Deer went on a scoring binge to swamp Olds under a 2-3 score here Monday night in a Central Alberta Hockey League fixture. The victory tightened Red Deer's grip on first place in the league. The game in spite of the fact that Olds was speedy one and there was never a dull moment as the home team, holding with scoring plays. The goalkeepers played a rubber in the scoring drive.

Uncovering a speedy offensive Red Deer swept into a 2-0 lead before the first period was ten minutes old and before the attack set Olds back in their tracks. The visitors did not find the range until the second minute had passed. The last four minutes of play saw a procession to the goal as the teams fought it up. A free-wheeling broke out after the first minute in which most of the players took some part.

Play was fairly even at the start of the second period and there was a procession to the goal as the teams fought it up. A free-wheeling broke out after the first minute in which most of the players took some part.

Olds failed to narrow the margin. Red Deer came right back and failed in a brace of markers before the bell.

The pace was terrific in the last period and there were a number of big mistakes around the nets as the result of combination attack. Olds broke through at four minutes to score their final goal but the series of power plays came with men off play was ragged for time. The locals made the best of extra man power to score twice with Olds a minn shut.

A little sheepishly, yet with the air of one determined to brazen out a compromising situation, the old lady said, "Quite a gallery, isn't it?" The newspapers asked to

But Linda knew why they were all spread out there; and she felt a rush of affection for the old lady that she would not have believed possible five minutes ago.

She had come back to the house determined to leave it as soon as she could get ready. She would leave a letter for Barry, explaining to him that her position here was untenable — unbearable. She said, "that Captain Trent will make a safe landing in time to escape the unseasonable tropical storm which is sweeping westward across the Caribbean."

After all, hadn't Barry left old Miranda in her care?

That night the radio reported Captain Trent well on the last leg of his flight. There was one ominous sentence in the broadcast, however, that sent Linda's nails deep into her palms.

W. Leigh Brintnell, president of Mackenzie Air Service, left Edmonton Monday evening for eastern Canada on a short business trip.
